Overview

The U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ), Office of Justice Programs (OJP), Bureau of Justice Assistance (BJA) seeks applications for funding to plan, implement, and enhance substance use treatment courts, including service coordination, management of treatment court participants, fidelity to the model, and recovery support services. This program furthers the DOJ's mission by providing resources to state, local, and federally recognized tribal governments to support treatment court programs for individuals involved with the justice system who have substance use disorders, including stimulant, opioid, and other substances, and for those at risk of overdose.

This solicitation incorporates guidance provided in the OJP Grant Application Resource Guide which provides additional information for applicants to prepare and submit applications to OJP for funding. If this solicitation expressly modifies any provision in the OJP Grant Application Resource Guide, the applicant is to follow the guidelines in this solicitation as to that provision.

Eligibility

For Category 1: Planning and Implementation and Category 2: Enhancement, the following entities are eligible to apply:

State governments; Special district governments; City or township governments; County governments; Public housing authorities/Indian housing authorities; Native American tribal governments (Federally recognized)

Other: Public or private entities acting on behalf of a single treatment court through agreement with state, city, township, county, or tribal governments

For Category 3: Statewide, the following entities are eligible to apply:

State agencies such as the State Administering Agency, the Administrative Office of the Courts, and the State Substance Abuse Agency

State criminal justice agencies and other state agencies involved with the provision of substance use and/or mental health services, or related services.

BJA will consider applications under which two or more entities would carry out the federal award; however, only one entity may be the applicant. Any others must be proposed as subrecipients (subgrantees). For additional information on subawards, see the OJP Grant Application Resource Guide.

An applicant entity may submit more than one application, if each application proposes a different project in response to the solicitation. Also, an entity may be proposed as a subrecipient (subgrantee) in more than one application.

BJA may elect to fund applications submitted under this FY 2023 solicitation in future fiscal years, dependent on, among other considerations, the merit of the applications and the availability of appropriations.
