RETURN COMPLETED, SIGNED AND NOTARIZED FORM TO:

In speaking with the code officer on duty, Officer Adare, and reviewing the Order finding non-compliance and imposing lien, the violation appears to be for failure to upkeep the mowing and removal of debris that had been dumped on the lot.

The lot owner, Chester Vander Pyl III was an elderly 100% disabled veteran, having served our Country in Vietnam, who died at the age of 81 years old on December 6, 2023. At the time the lien was initially imposed, Mr. Vander Pyl would have been approximately 78 years old. He was a resident of Levy County, living approximately 3 hours from the location of the lot, making monitoring and upkeep very challenging. When the property was cleared, unknown individuals would come and dump debris on the parcel, making compliance an ongoing struggle, a struggle which I believe Mr. Vander Pyl eventually gave up as a futile endeavor. Making matters worse, Mr. Vander Pyl's home sustained 5ft of flood waters during the Hurricane Idalia storm in August of 2023, pulling his efforts and energy towards saving his personal residence and away from maintaining the vacant lot in question.

Since Mr. Vander Pyl's passing, I have been appointed personal representative of his estate and am working on finalizing his affairs. One of those affairs being bringing his parcel into compliance (which has already been done) and addressing the remaining balance owed for the initial violation. It is my hope to be able to resolve the outstanding lien balance so that I may then liquidate the lot to take care of the remaining estate expenses and obligations. The lot could then be utilized by a new owner who will turn the lot into a productive parcel for the community. As I understand the amount of the lien has grown exponentially since initially imposed, totaling a sum of $57,800.00, satisfaction of the lien in a feasible manner has become almost prohibitive. It is my hope that you would consider a reduction of the lien balance and accept the amount of $5,000.00 in exchange to release of the lien.

On behalf of myself, Mr. Vander Pyl's Estate, and his heirs, Thank you for your time and consideration of this request.
